Who: We want motivated young pro-life people between the ages of 18-28 (again we can be flexible in some circumstances.)

When: The Summer internship would start June 1 and ends August 18 but we welcome people to come earlier if possible. We will be attending the National Right to Life Conference, National Sidewalk Counseling Conference, Soulfest in New Hampshire and many more events. We will also spend a day in NYC and visit the Priests for Life national headquarters in Staten Island. (Start and end dates are flexible)

Where: We are located in Troy, OH, which is near Dayton. We have a missionary apartment that is connected to the office for girls and a private room in the office with a bathroom for guys.

What: The internship will include a wide variety of pro-life training, work, prayer and activism as well as traveling to pro-life events.

A few of the duties:

Social Media: Interns will spend time every day building, maintaining and developing the social media outreach for Stand True and Priests for Life. This includes Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, Tumblr, Instagram and many more. Interns will be helping in building our social media library on the Stand True web site.

Summer Festivals and Events: Interns will traveling with Stand True to several summer events to work the booth, give talks and educate people on pro-life issues.

Activism: Interns will go to the abortion clinic for prayer and sidewalk counseling at least once a week. Interns will take part in some local and national pro-life events and activism.

Office work: Interns will help run the daily needs of the Stand True office like mail, order fulfillment, cleaning, banking, filing, proof reading and other needs around the office.

Pro-life Training: Interns will be studying pro-life issues and apologetics. Interns will write articles, give talks and learn how to argue the pro-life position.

We are also looking for interns with special talents: Web design, Wordpress knowledge, graphic arts, writing skills and more. We provide housing and basic food as well as travel costs when you travel with Stand True for events like the National Right to Life Convention. You will be expected to help fundraise towards the missionary program but there is no set cost to come.
